So, you’re graduating? Congratulations!

Helpful tips for a fun and successful Commencement day:

- Public parking is available at the GRCC Third and Marshall streets parking deck and the Fifth and Marshall streets garage for a fee.

- Reserve your seat. RSVP at go.vcu.edu/maygraduates2019.

- Remember to bring your regalia (gown, hood, cap and tassel) and your map (on the opposite side of this flier).

- Be cautious of wearing tall heels! You’ll be navigating stairs and escalators, so comfortable footwear is highly recommended.

- Family and friends should enter at the Third and Marshall or Fifth and Marshall streets entrances to the Exhibit Hall Pavilion, which will open at 8:30 a.m. GRCC is located at 403 N. Third St., Richmond, Va. 23219. There will be metal detection and bag checks for all guests and graduates, so please allow additional arrival time.

- Arrive by 9 a.m. and use the Fifth and Marshall streets entrance of the Ballroom Pavilion to get to the Grand Ballroom to line up.

- Graduates, if you arrive after 9:30 a.m., you may be unable to sit with your school.

- 9:40 a.m., faculty and staff will lead your line toward the floor entrances to await the start of the processional.

- 10 a.m. sharp, faculty and staff will lead you onto the floor and into your seats.

- Please pay attention, move quickly, keep cell phones in your pockets and follow the person in front of you closely.

- Noon: Commencement ceremony concludes.

Remember, VCU Commencement is different than your departmental ceremony!
