Graduate students who are eligible for master’s or doctoral degree candidacy must complete and sign the degree candidacy form, then submit it to their graduate program directors for approval and processing. DocuSign is being used to complete, sign, and send the form to all required signers.

The individual initiating the Degree Candidacy form can either be a student or departmental faculty/staff. The initiator will need to enter the following information:

Step 1: Regardless of who is initiating the form, the following information is required:

- Name/email of student seeking candidacy
- Name/email address of student’s advisor
- Name/email address of student’s Graduate Program Director
- Name/email address of student’s School’s Dean/Designee.

NOTE: Schools may have a designee or Assoc/Asst Dean who is responsible for signing candidacy forms instead of the Dean. Check with your department to make sure you are listing the correct person.

Contact your program if you are unsure of who is required to sign your Degree Candidacy Form.
Once completing the fields shown above, you will receive the following prompts if you are both the initiator and the student:

The following prompt will appear to confirm that you have completed addressing the form:
