

VCU

Graduate School

Research and Mentoring Opportunity

RAM Opportunity FAQ

How long does the program last?

The RAM Opportunity is a two-week (20hrs/week) summer program. Participants must be available for the entire two week period.

What is the location of the program?

The RAM Opportunity will be hosted at Virginia Commonwealth University. The program will not provide transportation to campus.

Is there a cost to participate in the RAM Opportunity?

There is no tuition cost associated with participation in the program.

Will meals be served during the two week program?

The Program does not provide meals. Students should prepare accordingly. Packing lunch and eating onsite is encouraged. A refrigerator and microwave are available for use each day. Students should label and keep track of any containers.

Can I complete a paper application?

Please contact the Program Coordinator at RAMOpp@vcu.edu to request a paper application.